WINEMAKING NOTES

Ballard Lane Cabernet Sauvignon is a richly structured, full-bodied wine grown in the highest elevations of Paso Robles. This region provides the ideal growing conditions for Cabernet Sauvignon with its warm days and cool nights. This allows for maximum flavor development and intensity. Wine Enthusiast recognized Paso Robles as the 2013 Wine Region of the Year. The Ballard Lane Cabernet Sauvignon shines with deep garnet core and explosive brambly fruit, savory spices and nuances of toasted oak. Enjoy the expressive blackberries, Mirabelle plums, and spicy barrel character with grilled ribeye or your favorite bold cheeses.
